To Whom It May Concern:

I have a passion to perform, a desire to entertain. I toured worldwide with productions as classmates were taking final exams. I played the drums, tabla, and bongos at various events long before my peers were old enough to attend those events.

I am considered a triple threat - a multilingual East Indian performer who can act, sing and dance. With a unique style of acting, I am often cast as the lead actor, protagonist, and hero in projects that have taken me around the world. Many of the films I starred in went viral, garnering over a million views around the globe in their first two weeks.

I've toured pan India as the lead in some of the biggest international theatre shows in the country, many of which have been seen by the deputy Prime Minister of India. At age 18, I worked with Ekta Kapoor, "The Queen of Television," handling creatives for Kapoor's soap opera and working with the biggest television production house - Balaji Telefilms - in India.

I travelled with Zee Television Awards (Gold Awards) in Mauritius before founding my own theatre and event management company, Beyond Exclamation. I performed theatre and dance shows across India for major corporations of Cisco, Indian Bank, New York Life, Toyota And Apple Inc.

I've established outstanding working relationships. My professional team encompasses an impressive list of internationally recognized names that includes Hip Hop icon and the "King of Popping and Locking" Shabba Doo, the award-winning music composer Ara Torosyan, professional costumer and stylist Michael Philpot, international photographer, Vern Evans, award-winning director Amit Shah, award-winning producer Tigran Mutafyan, Webby award-winning creative director Michael Washington and the viral Bollywood choreographer BFunk. With their guidance, my work has been shared on platforms including Times Music, iTunes, Spotify, Vevo, Tapesh TV, NBC, T-Series and Doordarshan India.

I welcome the opportunity to further pursue my career in the United States. This beautiful country has given me the freedom to perform and truly pursue my creative passions while promoting world peace, diversity, and women's empowerment through acting, singing, dancing, and cultural awareness.

Thank you in advance for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Sapra
